CRISP SPORTING COMMENT

Senators Have Their Chance to Pull Out of Last Place.

THE SOUTHERN MARYLAND FAIR

With Two More Games with Louisville and Three with Chicago the Local Club May Considerably Improve Its Standing in the League Fight—Running Meetings.

By means of steady work the Senators have lessened considerably the difference between the Colonels and themselves and by winning to-day's and to-morrow's game will be almost on equal terms with Barnie's rejuvenated Bourbons. After the series with Louisville will come Cap. Adriandous Anson and his draft of colts, who as just now playing championship ball and no mistake. Two out of three from Uncle Anson would give the Senators an opportunity to jump to eleventh place, as the Colonels will tackle New York after leaving here. To those who have remained constant to the local team throughout the vicissitudes of the season the outlook is rather promising that their devotion may be rewarded. But it has heretofore been that whenever the Senators braced up and caused a revival of interest and hope, a slump would follow and the fans are kept on tenter hooks all the time, unable to tell which way the cat will jump.

Manager Schmeitz is reported as having started out for a new material and hopes are expressed he will return with one or more new players. It is a mooted question whether there is any real need for the absence of the manager from his men at the present time. His presence might result in the club pulling out of last place. Perhaps the boys will strive all the harder to win games and so show they do not need a manager at all. But the Senators will have to keep on playing good, honest ball all the time to improve their position. They have thirty odd championship games yet to be played before the season closes. These are with the Western clubs, their chances are just as good as the Westerners, but they must win more than half of their remaining games or else they will again finish the tail-enders.

If Baltimore should win the National League pennant the people of the Mountaineer City would again grow crazy for the time being, and the members of the championship club would own the town. As a matter of fact the Orioles have as great a chance as Boston to finish at the head of the parade. The Baltimoreans have been very successful against all the Western clubs, with the exception of the Pittsburghers, and from the manner in which they jumped on the Pirates on Saturday it would seem the spell had been broken. The Senators are not nearly as strong in the pitching department as they were a month ago, while Baltimore has improved. Every time the Gothamites crank their gears will do the trick along comes Uncle Anson's or some other aggregation and knocks the spots out of all calculations. Cleveland will hardly do all it looks like. Certainly the Senators will go to either Boston or Baltimore, with the chances about even.

Commencing to-morrow the great Southern Maryland fair will open at Upper Marlboro and continue four days. While general provision has been made for the usual mechanical and athletic exhibits, the fair is not a fair in the ordinary sense of the word. It is a fair to the people of the State, and the fair will be the trotting and running races. Over 100 entries have been received for the trotting races and 125 for the running races. Many of the horses are of the highest quality and the races will be taken to the fair to compete, and excellent contests are assured. The track is one-half mile and is in excellent condition, while a new grandstand has been erected for the accommodation of the spectators. Special trains will run between this city and the fair grounds.

The building of the new race track at the Gentlemen's Driving Park, near St. Asaph's Junction, Va., is being prosecuted and the indications point to everything being in readiness for the opening of the track on September 1st. A license has already been granted by the Jockey Club, and as the meeting will commence directly after the close of the season, the track will probably be represented. Whether there will be a clash between Alexander Island and St. Asaph is not yet decided, but it would be far better for all the interested parties to come to an agreement whereby there will be no clashing.

Owing to the Western clubs being in the East there were no Sunday games played. To-day Louisville plays at Washington, Baltimore at Baltimore; Cleveland at Philadelphia; Chicago at New York; St. Louis at Brooklyn, and Cincinnati at Boston.
